J. E. Ward and Dan Perry made a raid on the fish tribe in Brookfield streams yesterday—the last chance. The result was two baskets of trout which passed inspection of two fish commissioners. Mr. Ward's creel, which contained 12 pounds and three ounces, was on exhibition at Drown's drug store last evening. The largest trout weighed one pound.

About 40 young friends of Miss Dora Robertson gave her a surprise party at her home on Washington street last evening, the occasion being in honor of her eleventh birthday. Miss Dolly Blann in behalf of the company presented her with a beautiful ring. The evening was spent in playing games and ice cream and cake were served. A most delightful time was enjoyed by all.

In the issue of Monday, August 29, The Times had an item which said "one Swede" had been arrested for a disturbance on North Main street and the police were looking for another. As a matter of fact, no Swede was arrested and none was concerned in the fracas referred to. It was an error which crept into the paper and The Times gladly makes this correction, regretting that the misunderstanding should have arisen and an injustice done to the Swedish people of the city.

William McHardy, who lives on Pleasant street, was greatly frightened night before last by what he thought to be burglars attempting to enter his boarding house. He yelled for help and awoke the whole neighborhood, only to discover that the cause of the noise was two dogs who were entangled in a clothes prop. Ammunition running short to scare the dogs, the apple barrel was in commission until reinforcements arrived on the scene, Ingram and Gordon being the heroes of the moment.

This Weather Suggests Warmer Waists.

Where we have had in past seasons one Fall Waist now we have three. The most of our Waists are the celebrated W. B. Waists. There is more to this Waist than the name. Every Waist is of the latest, both in material and style. It's the only Waist on the market that you can buy in Cotton, Wool, Velvet or Silk and have warranted to wear your money's worth.

Special Waist Values.

Velvet Waists made of guaranteed velvets, with box fronts closed with quarter straps. Have new sleeves and are better values than we used to sell at $3.75. They come in green, brown, tan, blue, red and black. If you want them, the price on these Waists is $2.98 each.

French Flannel Waists made the same as our Silk Waists, with wide tucks. They come in navy, black and red. Would be good values at $2.50. These Waists are priced at $1.98 each.

Special Waist Values.

Batiste Waists are used by many in place of Silk Waists. These have lined sleeves and are suitable to wear right through the winter. These Waists have the wide tucks and new sleeves and sell now for $2.98 each.

Batiste Waists in all colors. This is a very swell Waist. Has tucked vest closed in at top with yoke edged with three rows of hemstitching. Would sell at $3.75. This lot at $2.98 each.

Special Waist Values.

We have just received a Black Taffeta Waist that has style. Recognized at once as good as any $5.00 Waist. We are to make this Waist this sale $3.98.

Black Beau de Soie Waists in the new fall style. This quality Waist has been sold by us for the last seven years, styles changing every three months. We have warranted every one and are yet to have the first Waist returned. Isn't it a pretty good Waist to buy? Price, only $5.75.
